

SEA ALLIANCE UPDATE

SEA ALLIANCE: OUR THEORY OF CHANGE

Inputs

Assumptions:

- Participants invest adequate time
- External stakeholders are open to collaboration
- The enabling environment keeps human rights on the seafood industry's agenda

CAPABILITY BUILDING – COLLABORATION – STAKEHOLDER ENGAGEMENT
Cross Cutting Themes

IMPACT: Human rights in wild capture fish supply chains are protected and respected

SEAFOOD ETHICS ACTION ALLIANCE

Sea Fish Industry Authority

Date: 2021

Purpose: To support the Seafood Ethics Action Alliance to increase industry leadership and encourage positive change in human rights issues across the seafood supply chains of UK companies

Amount: $250,000

Term: 24 months

Program Area: Conservation and Science > Global Seafood Markets

Grantee Location: Edinburgh, , United Kingdom

KEY UPDATES

Recruitment

Governance

Stakeholder engagement

Risk assessment

QUESTIONS AND DISCUSSION